4.2.1 You must pay your premium every year by debit order before the beginning of the year to which cover applies. The year does not have to start in January – it can start in any month of the year. 7 Claims

7.1 How to claim

7.1.1 You must tell us as soon as possible of any event that may result in a claim and whether any other policy that you have covers the same event.

7.1.2 You must give us full details of the event within 31 days, and all the documents we may need.

7.1.3 You must tell us immediately in writing if you become aware of any possible prosecution, legal proceedings or claim against you after an event.

7.1.4 You must report any claim event that involves theft or any other criminal act to the police within 48 hours of the incident.

7.1.5 You may not, without our written consent, admit liability, make an offer or promise to pay, or actually pay, for any event that may result in a claim.

7.1.6 You may not, without our written consent, agree to any partial payment or any settlement that any third party offers to you as compensation for loss, damage or liability that your policy covers.

7.1.7 You must get authorisation from us before any repairs may start and we may do further assessments before we authorise any repairs.

7.1.8 In the event of any damage, you must do everything you can to protect the vehicle from further loss or damage.

PG 8

7.1.9 Our approved dealer may use non-original spare parts to repair the vehicle, if they do not compromise the warranty and safety of the vehicle.

7.2 How we settle claims

We may settle your claim in any one or more of the following ways:

7.2.1 Repairing

7.2.2 Replacing

7.2.3 Paying cash

7.2.4 Any combination of these

The limit is the amount shown on the schedule minus any excess, if applicable.

If we replace or repair, we will do so under reasonable circumstances, and will use our preferred suppliers or repairers.

Before we finalise or settle any claim, we may ask you to sign an agreement of loss.

7.3 Right to repair

Although we recommend the use of approved dealers, you may choose an independent service provider to repair your vehicle, but you will have to pay them for any expenses we don't cover. Please note: It remains your responsibility to ensure the independent service provider you have chosen is approved by your vehicle manufacturer to make repairs to your vehicle.

We do not have any recourse against your selected independent service provider. You will therefore need to sign a disclaimer removing us from any liability and responsibility towards any escalation you may have against the independent service provider. The independent service provider will have to carry full liability and risk for any work completed on your vehicle; we will therefore not be held liable for any loss of warranty linked to the vehicle and/or quality of workmanship by your preferred independent service provider.

7.4 Our rights after an event that may lead to a claim

7.4.1 You must allow us or our appointed agent to enter any premises required and to take possession of any damaged insured property.

7.4.2 You must give us all the information and help that we need. We may also take over the recovery, defence or settlement of a claim and handle it in your name.

7.4.3 We may, at any time, give up control of any defence, settlement or proceedings and pay you the full amount of our liability, or any lesser amount for which the claim can be settled. If we do so, we will no longer have any further liability.

7.4.4 If this policy insures you and any other person, we may give any compensation to the other person and we will no longer have any further liability.

7.5 Time limits

7.5.1 If we reject your claim or dispute the claim amount, which we will communicate to you in writing, you may, within 90 days from the date of our communication make written representations to us.

1

3

4

5

7.5.2 If we still reject your claim or dispute the claim amount, you may start legal proceedings against us. You must do this within 180 days from the date on which we communicated your written representations.

7.5.3 We are not liable after 12 months from the date of the event that resulted in the claim, unless the claim is:

7.5.3.1 the subject of pending court action or arbitration; or

7.5.3.2 for amounts for which you may become legally liable.

7.6 No premium refund for an item or event if a claim is settled

If we compensate you for a claim, we will not refund any premium for the remainder of the period of your cover for that event or item.

7.7 Fraudulent or wilful acts

You will lose all rights to claim under this policy if:

7.7.1 a claim or any part of it is fraudulent or if you or anyone acting on your behalf uses any fraudulent means to benefit from this policy;

7.7.2 a claim happens due to a deliberate, wilful or intentional act committed by you or with your involvement, or by anyone acting on your behalf or with the involvement of anyone acting on your behalf;

7.7.3 the claim information is untrue or the documents to support your claim are fraudulent; or

7.7.4 you or anyone acting on your behalf exaggerates the extent of the claim.

8 Duty of care

You must take all reasonable precautions and care to prevent or minimise loss, damage, death, injury or liability.

We recommend using our authorised dealers, but you may choose an independent service provider within the limitations of the right to repair above.

9 Your rights

You (in this paragraph meaning the names set out in the schedule) may not cede or assign your rights or obligations to another person. No other person may make a claim against us.

The rights you enjoy under your policy are in addition to any contractual rights under statute or common law and do not detract from these latter rights.

10 Other insurance

If a claim is payable under this policy and under any other policy, we will pay only our proportional share of the claim.

11 Disclosure of information that affects the risk

For this general condition, the term 'you' includes any person acting on your behalf.

We may declare the whole or any part of this policy invalid if you:

11.1 have not given us all the details that affect the risk; or

11.2 have misrepresented or misdescribed any details that affect the risk.

You must tell us immediately of any change in the risk. If the risk changes, then we may change the cover and premium from the date of the change. If you do not tell us about any material changes in the risk, we will be entitled to cancel the policy or reject any claim that occurred after the change in the risk.

12 Excess

The excess is the amount you must pay before we can settle a claim. Our compensation is limited to the amount shown on the schedule, minus any excess. Your schedule shows when you have to pay an excess.

If the excess is based on a percentage of the loss or damage, the percentage will be applied to the amount of the loss or damage that has happened.

13 Jurisdiction and currency

This policy is valid within the Republic of South Africa only, and is subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of the Republic of South Africa and South African law applies. All payments will be made in rands.

14 Your right to privacy and sharing of your information

14.1 Sharing of information

- 14.1.1 To combat insurance fraud and to determine and properly evaluate risks, the South African Insurance Association (SAIA) has created a shared database for storing insurance information of policyholders. We will store your information in the shared database to verify any underwriting information against legally recognised sources or databases.
- 14.1.2 Fighting insurance fraud will benefit you, because fraud has an enormous effect on the short-term insurance industry. It affects the evaluation and determination of risks by insurers, and it affects you directly as it leads to higher premiums. We are serious about combating fraud and about the fair evaluation of risks, because we want to keep your premium as fair and competitive as possible.

14.2 Your right to privacy

- 14.2.1 Your privacy is important, and we will use all reasonable efforts to ensure that any information, including personal information (like your name, physical address, ID number or phone number), that you give us or that we collect from you or third parties is processed, transferred and stored in a secure manner.
- 14.2.2 We may, however, process your personal information (as defined in section 1 of the Protection of Personal Information Act, 4 of 2013, which act may sometimes change), including fingerprints, biometric personal identification details and photographs and through identity verification, to provide financial services and to detect and prevent fraud and money laundering. We may also send your personal information by electronic or other means for processing to third parties and foreign countries (if necessary) to deliver a financial service to you. You acknowledge that these countries may not have specific data privacy laws. If that is the case, we will enter into appropriate confidentiality agreements with these service providers based in the foreign countries.

14.3 Your authorisation to us

- 14.3.1 You acknowledge that, in the public interest, the sharing of information regarding claims and underwriting records by insurance companies is desirable as it enables them to assess risks fairly, issue policies and reduce the incidence of fraudulent claims. This will contribute to keeping premiums as low as possible.

1

3

4

5

- 14.3.2 You therefore give us permission to process and share your information for this policy for underwriting purposes or to validate a claim that you have made or that someone has made on your behalf in terms of this policy.
- 14.3.3 You give us permission to store your information in the shared database and use it as explained above.
- 14.3.4 You give us permission to give your information to any insurer or its agent.
- 14.3.5 You give us permission to verify any underwriting information against, and share it with, legally recognised sources or databases.

15 A person who deals on your behalf

You give up your right to receive compensation if a person who deals on your behalf does not comply with the conditions, exclusions or any other provisions of this policy if you claim.

16 Amendments to conform to law

You and we agree that any terms or conditions of this policy that go against any law will be changed to conform to the law.

17 Insurable interest

You may insure only items in which you have an insurable interest. You have an insurable interest in an item only if you stand to suffer a direct loss due to the insured item being lost or damaged.

18 Cooling-off period

You may cancel this policy within 14 days of the date you have received your policy documents. We will then refund any premium that you have paid during this period, if you have not submitted a claim and we have not compensated you under this policy.

19 Release of liability

It is expressly agreed and declared that we will have no liability or obligations under your policy if you do not fully comply with the terms and conditions of your policy.

20 Excessive claims

We have the right to cancel your policy if you submit excessive claims within your policy period. The cancellation will be done as explained in general condition 6 above.

21 Unavailable parts

If a part that is needed to repair the vehicle, or a third-party vehicle, is not available as a standard, ready-made part in South Africa, we will pay an amount equal to the value of the part at the time of the loss or damage, including reasonable cost to transport the part (not by air). We determine the value of the part according to the price in the most recent catalogue or price list for the vehicle.
